

1387-1400

CHAUCEER
Canterbury Tales

1387

At Isfahan (Esfahan) city in Central Iran, the city suffered massacres by Tamerlane

Questions to judges Royal judges, in answer to questions put by Richard II entirely upheld all royal prerogatives - taxation without parliamentary consent, unfettered choice of officials, necessity of royal assent to impeachment proceedings; reforms of 1386 parliamentary thus made illegal;

atypical opposition to Richard II

1387

Sigismund secures Hungarian crown.

Apr 9, 1387

Battle of Näfels men of G. Louis were the chief factors

C1387-1400

The Canterbury Tales
by Chaucer were written

1170- King Henry II sent his knights to the Cathedral of Canterbury and killed Bishop Thomas à Becket in his cathedral.

1387-1400

Canterbury Tales

the 17,000-line English Poem by Geoffrey Chaucer (c 1340 - Oct-25, 1400)

138.7

1912 Dates J-BK

Italy CONFU was acquired by Venice.

Florence was powerful

1387

1912 Dates J-BK

Margaret (Olaf's mother) was queen of Norway and Denmark (when Olaf died)

1388-1397 She was also queen of Sweden

1387-1437

1912 Dates J-BK

House of Luxemburg in Hungary